Glovia International Appoints New Chief Financial & Administrative Officer Financial Veteran, Masahiro Cho, Brings World-Class Experience to His New Roles

El Segundo, Calif., June 27, 2006 — Glovia International, a subsidiary of Fujitsu and a leading provider of extended ERP solutions for engineer-to-order and high volume manufacturers, announced today that Masahiro Cho has been named Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and Chief Administrative Officer (CAO). Cho reports directly to company President & CEO Yuji Nakasu and is responsible for management of information systems (MIS) and all accounting, legal and administration functions within Glovia.

Cho brings with him a unique set of experiences, having spent the last six years serving as Vice President, Finance & Accounting for Konami Digital Entertainment, Inc., the United States subsidiary of Japan's largest video game manufacturer. Prior to Konami Cho served the previous ten years in a number of senior level accounting and planning positions for Chugai Pharmaceutical, Co., Ltd.

"Over the past fifteen plus years Masahiro has acquired a deep understanding and appreciation of how to work effectively in a wide variety of markets and industries, stated Yuji Nakasu, President & CEO for Glovia International. "We look very forward to Masahiro putting his expertise and experience to great use at Glovia to help continue our success."

Cho received his MBA in Finance and International Business from the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida in 1991. He received a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration, with a major in Accounting from Pittsburg State University, Pittsburg Kansas in 1989. And he graduated from Toyo University, Tokyo, Japan with a Bachelor of Law in 1985.
